STRATEGIC FRAMEWORK DOCUMENT

University of Nebraska
2000 - 2004
Updated February 7, 2000

Introduction

Higher education will continue to change in the next millennium. The most profound evolution is a transformation that is moving society from the industrial age to the information age, the result of which is a growing demand for access to higher education from increasingly diverse groups of students.

Our collective vision of a university is changing from instruction delivered exclusively from one physical site to a technologically enhanced, interactive, community of scholars and learners in many locations. This environment is one in which access to powerful learning systems, information and knowledge bases is essential and is at least as important as maintaining the physical environment of the campus communities.

The four campuses of the University of Nebraska have developed plans to meet these needs. These plans are consistent with this framework document which articulates university-wide objectives and also serves as a guide for future planning.

Mission

The University was chartered in 1869 as a land-grant university under the Morrill Act. "The land-grant university has often been cited as America's greatest contribution to higher education.... The Morrill Act assumed that higher education should be available to all qualified persons at low cost, throughout a full lifetime. The university was thus seen as a functioning part of a total society, not as an addendum or an ornament, and not the prerogative of the few or the solace of the leisured." (Knoll, Prairie University 1995)

The original charter of the University of Nebraska went beyond even the scope of the seven-year-old Morrill Act by specifying that the University was for all inhabitants of the state. This value has been reflected in our framework.

The original mission of the University appears in the laws of the State of Nebraska:
"The object of [the University of Nebraska] shall be to afford to the inhabitants of this state the means of acquiring a thorough knowledge of the various branches of literature, science and arts."

The University's mission has evolved over time, but the concepts of access and affordability remain at the core even today. Role and Mission statements adopted by the Board of Regents for the four campuses reflect the broader contributions and responsibilities of the University to the citizens of Nebraska.

The mission of the University is to meet the educational, economic, social and cultural needs and aspirations of the citizens of Nebraska through teaching and service/outreach, and the discovery, integration and application of knowledge.

The University's mission is carried out by its four campuses in fulfillment of their designed unique roles and missions.

Vision

The University's four campuses shall be among the top 30 public universities in their individual peer groups, in meeting the needs of students and all citizens for a lifetime of continuous learning, research that enhances the health and quality of life, and outreach and service programs that ensure the benefits of new knowledge are shared throughout the state.

Values

These values are central to achieving the University's vision, and they should guide the implementation of strategies to meet each of our objectives. The University:

- focuses on the needs and aspirations of the people it serves
- is a learning organization and is committed to discovery and engagement
- values innovation, individuals and ideas collaboration and cooperation will be important. The following are some major assumptions about the environment that may affect the university during the next few years.

- Enhance research and creativity activity throughout the University consistent with each campus's role and mission.
- Strengthen outreach to Nebraskans and their communities, particularly in the application of knowledge for economic development, health, and quality of life. Expand lifelong educational opportunities for every citizen.
- Develop and maintain excellence in selected, clearly focused fields, collaborative efforts, and programs.
- Enhance the business and administrative goals of the University to support, serve and enhance the learning, research and outreach goals of the University.
- Continue to enhance efforts to recruit and retain Nebraska high school graduates and increase the number of out-of-state students attending the University. Increase commitment to graduate education resulting in increased graduate enrollment.

percent of the total votes cast more than the next, nearest opponent. This can necessitate stressful and costly run-offs in elections in which there may be only two candidates running.

This Amendment to RP 2.8 would make void any votes cast for ineligible candidates as defined by the remainder of RP 2.8 (i.e. officially registered student in good standing with a minimum 2.0 cumulative GPA, not on academic or disciplinary probation, etc.). Those void votes would not be counted in the total number of votes cast thereby making the vote more reflective of whether or not a run-off should occur.

This Policy Amendment does not affect the validity of votes cast for write-in candidates. Should there be a sufficient number of write-in votes to necessitate a run-off, that will still be a possibility under this amendment. This would just make invalid votes cast for non-registered students, as well as those ineligible to hold office for other reasons (i.e. GPA, number of credit hours, etc.).

MEETING DATE: February 26, 2000

SUBJECT: Amendment of Section 3.12.4 of the Bylaws of the Board of Regents of the University of Nebraska.

RECOMMENDED ACTION: Approve amendment of Section 3.12.4 of the Bylaws of the Board of Regents of the University of Nebraska.

PREVIOUS ACTION: None.

The University maintains two retirement plans, one for Federal Retirement System participants and the other for other eligible employees. Federal Retirement System Participants at the University of Nebraska are primarily comprised of extension educators. The amendment to Section 3.12.4.2, dealing with eligibility and participation in the retirement plans, incorporates by reference the respective definitions of eligible employees in the plans, rather than setting forth those definitions in full in the Bylaws. Finally, the amendment to Section 3.12.4.5 incorporates by reference the terms of the Tax-Sheltered Annuity Program of the University of Nebraska previously adopted by the Board, rather than setting forth in the Bylaws some of the provisions of the program.

Stat. § 85-106, as amended. ~~The terms of the Retirement Plan, as amended from time to time, are hereby incorporated into these Bylaws by reference as if set out fully.~~ Eligibility for participation, contributions, vesting in University contributions and entitlement to benefits shall be governed by Sections 3.12.4 through 3.12.4.7, inclusive, and by the terms of the Retirement Plans. 3.12.4.6 Amendment or Termination of Plans. (a) While it is expected that the Retirement Plans will continue indefinitely, the Board reserves the right at any time to amend, otherwise modify, or terminate the Plans, or discontinue any further contributions or payments under the Plans, by a formal action of the Board taken in accordance with the provisions of Section 1.11 of the ~~Bylaws of the Board of Regents~~ relating to amendments to the Bylaws and filed of record with the Corporation Secretary. In the event of a termination of the Retirement Plans or discontinuance of contributions, the Board will notify all participants ~~of termination or discontinuance of contributions thereof~~. (b) Notwithstanding the provisions of subparagraph (a) of this section, the following conditions and limitations will apply to amendments to the Retirement Plans:

SUBJECT: Request for Approval of Supervision of Immediate Family

RECOMMENDED ACTION: Approve the request to allow the supervision of an immediate family member by consent of the Board of Regents in accordance with University policy.

PREVIOUS ACTION: None

EXPLANATION: Section 3.8 of the Bylaws of the Board of Regents of the University of Nebraska states that no employee shall hire or supervise a member of his or her immediate family without expressed written consent of the Board.

Michael Sumpter, Director of Athletics, requests the consent of the Board of Regents to allow Guy B. Murray, Head Baseball Coach, to supervise his son, Guy A. Murray, as Assistant Baseball Coach. The Assistant Baseball Coach is a temporary part-time position at a salary of $9,000 with no benefits. This exceptional request is necessary because of the scarcity of candidates for this position.

Matters relating to the compensation and evaluation of Guy A. Murray will be administered by the Director of Athletics.

TO: The Board of Regents

MEETING DATE: February 26, 2000

SUBJECT: University of Nebraska at Kearney Residence Hall
Room and Board Rates for the 2000-2001 Academic Year

RECOMMENDED ACTION: Approve Double Occupancy Room and Board Rates for the 2000-2001 Academic Year as follows:

Double Occupancy Room and Board Rates (Academic Year):

Consecutive Contract Year	20 Meals/Wk	15 Meals/Wk	10 Meals/Wk
1	$3,520	$3,490	$3,400
2	3,330	3,300	3,210

Single occupancy surcharge: $650

Surcharge for wiring of halls: $100

PREVIOUS ACTION: March 20, 1999 - The Board of Regents approved the current Room and Board rates for double occupancy:

Double Room, 20 meals/week $3,330

Double Room, 15 meals/week $3,300

Double Room, 10 meals/week $3,210

Single occupancy surcharge: $650

Surcharge for wiring of halls: $100

EXPLANATION: The proposed rates will generate the revenues required to cover obligations and modest physical enhancements for the 2000-2001 year.

The proposed new room and board rates represent a 5.7% increase for first time residents selecting the 20-meal plan, a 5.7% increase for first-time residents selecting the 15 meal plan, and a 5.9% increase for first-time residents selecting the 10-meal plan.

Approximately 25% of the students expected to live in residence halls next year will be returning students who will pay no increase because of the returning student incentive plan adopted in 1999-2000. When students move into UNK residence halls their room and board rates remain constant for each successive academic year, unless a major enhancement is provided.

The rates reflect increased costs of employee salaries and wages, employee benefits, utilities, raw food costs, telephone rates, materials and supplies, and debt service requirements. The current double room rate (20 meals/week) is the third lowest rate among institutions in the UNK peer group, $253 (12.9%) below the average charge at the other ten schools.

The rates submitted for Board of Regents approval are the basic room and board charges to which all other rates are related — single rooms, family housing, etc. The percentage increase in rates for these other special contracts may be higher or lower than those stated above for the standard plans, depending upon the unique features that call for a special rate and contract. For example, rates in University Heights will increase only 4% for efficiency apartments and will not increase for one bedroom apartments in 2000-2001. Those rates will allow University Heights to remain competitive with the Kearney community for apartments and maintain a high occupancy in those units.

The surcharge for wiring begun in 1999-2000 allowed ten of the eleven residence halls to be wired consecutive for Internet access. The surcharge of $100 per year will end with the 2003 Fiscal Year.

Double Occupancy Room and Board Rates (academic year):

Consecutive Contract Yr	19 Meals/Wk	14 Meals/Wk	10Meals/Wk

7	3,205	3,120	3,065
8	3,055	2,970	2,915

PREVIOUS ACTION: February 20, 1999 - The Board of Regents approved the current Room and Board rates for double occupancy:

Double Room, 19 meals per week $4,070

Double Room, 14 meals per week $3,985

Double Room, 10 meals per week $3,930

EXPLANATION: A study of current and projected revenues and expenditures for the operation of residence halls was begun in October and concluded in January. The new rates will generate the revenues required to cover obligations and enhancements for the 2000-2001 year.

The proposed new rates represent a 5.9% increase for first-time residents selecting the 19-meal plan, a 6.0% increase for first-time residents selecting the 14-meal plan, and a 6.1% increase for first-time residents selecting the 10-meal plan.

Approximately 30% of the students expected to live in the residence halls next year will be returning students who will pay no (0.0%) increase because of the returning student incentive plan adopted in 1993-94. Under the incentive plan, when students move into UNL residence halls their room and board rates remain constant for each successive academic year, unless a major enhancement is provided.

These rates reflect increases in the cost of employee salaries and wages, employee benefits, utilities, raw food costs, telephone costs, computing enhancements, materials and supplies, and debt service requirements. The current double room rate (19 meals/week) is the 2nd lowest rate among institutions in the UNL peer group, $942 (18.8%) below the average charge at the other ten schools.

The rates submitted for Board approval at this time are the basic room and board charges to which all other rates are then related -- 12-month contracts, family housing, Husker Hall (room only), etc. The percentage increase in rates for these other special contracts may be higher or lower than those stated above for the standard plans, depending upon the unique features that call for a special rate and contract. For example, family housing rates will not increase in 2000-2001, reflecting: (1) the actual cost experience for those units, (2) prevailing rates in the community, and (3) a desire to maintain a high occupancy rate. The same principles and methodologies are followed, however, in setting rates for each type of special contract.

RECOMMENDED ACTION: Accept the U4ia Software gift from Lectra Systems, Inc.

PREVIOUS ACTION: None

EXPLANATION: Lectra computer systems are becoming widely used in the textiles industry and are being purchased by textile units at top institutions of higher education across the nation.

The Textiles, Clothing and Design department at UNL has purchased five of these computer systems and maintenance agreements for several reasons. First, students will be better prepared upon graduation to be more competitive when searching for and working in careers where use of this technology is required. The availability of these computer systems at other universities has also attracted industry funding. Finally, the outreach work of the Textiles, Clothing and Design department will be improved by the functionality of these computers in the work they are currently or have been approached to do for industry across Nebraska.

These computers, which use special textile and product modules for computer aided design, will benefit students in courses on product development and analysis, merchandising and market analysis, and fashion illustration and design.

Lectra Systems, Inc. of Marietta, Georgia, has given a gift of U4ia Software to the College of Human Resources and Family Sciences, Department of Textiles, Clothing and Design which includes CAD Software with the following modules: graphics, wovens, knits, prints, premier, and production; plus annual support and training. There are no other future obligations to Lectra Systems, Inc. in regard to this gift. The gift is valued at $523,000.

SUBJECT: Antelope Valley Improvement Project

RECOMMENDED ACTION: Approve Joint Antelope Valley Authority Interlocal Cooperation Agreement between the University, the City of Lincoln and the Lower Platte South Natural Resources District; and approve appointment of the University of Nebraska-Lincoln Vice Chancellor for Business & Finance and the University of Nebraska-Lincoln Associate Vice Chancellor for Business & Finance, respectively, as the University's representative and alternate representative to the Administrative Board of the Joint Antelope Valley Authority.

PREVIOUS ACTION: February 18, 1995 - The Board of Regents approved an interlocal cooperation agreement between the University, the City of Lincoln and the Lower Platte South Natural Resources District establishing a framework and division of responsibility for the planning efforts related to transportation, flooding and land use issues in the Antelope Creek Basin in the City of Lincoln.

EXPLANATION: Approval of this agenda item will approve the attached Joint Antelope Valley Authority Interlocal Cooperation Agreement between the University, the City of Lincoln and the Lower Platte South Natural Resources District ("the Partners") whereby the Partners will form the Joint Antelope Valley Authority, as authorized by the Interlocal Cooperation Act, (a) to plan, (b) to request State funding and to secure other planned sources of funding, and (c) if State funding and other necessary funding is secured, to implement a Project for certain public improvements in the Antelope Creek Basin generally located along the east and north sides of the UNL city campus.

Following is a synopsis of the essential terms of this interlocal agreement:

The agreement provides the legal mechanism for planning, funding, design and construction of the public improvements shown on Exhibit "C" attached to the agreement. The actions to be accomplished by the Partners are divided into two phases, called the "Preparation Period" and the "Implementation Period".

During the Preparation Period, described in Sections 1.02.9 and 4.05.1, the Partners will carry out public information and review of the project and project design, and they will seek to secure funding needed to move forward with actual construction of the project improvements in the Implementation Period. It is estimated that the Preparation period will take up to two years to complete. If funding is secured and other tasks are completed in the Preparation Period, the governing board of each partner will be asked to approve moving ahead with the Implementation Period, which will take up to ten years to complete. These duration periods for the interlocal agreement are spelled out in Section 3.

Section 4 provides for the creation of a joint administrative entity called the Joint Antelope Valley Authority (JAVA) to administer and carry out the purposes of the interlocal agreement. Sections 4.02.3.1 through 4.02.3.9 on pages 6, 7 and 8 describe the makeup and functioning of the JAVA administrative board, which is made up of a representative from each of the Partners.

Sections 4.05.1 through 4.05.8 on pages 8, 9 and 10 describe the powers delegated to JAVA. In this regard, it is important to note that JAVA will not be authorized to exercise any powers or complete any work beyond the Preparation Period until each Partner's governing board has approved Exhibit "B" authorizing the Partners and JAVA to proceed with the Implementation Period. This, of course, will not occur if the Partners are unsuccessful in securing the necessary State appropriations and other funding necessary to construct the public improvements proposed in the Finance as the University's alternate representative on the JAVA administrative board.

TO: The Board of Regents
Business Affairs

MEETING DATE: February 26, 2000

SUBJECT: Nebraska College of Technical Agriculture (NCTA) Residence Hall
Room and Board Rates for the 2000-2001 Academic Year

RECOMMENDED ACTION: Approve NCTA Room and Board Rates for the 2000-2001 academic year at $3,144.

PREVIOUS ACTION: March 20, 1999, Board of Regents approved the current room and board rates at $2,994.

EXPLANATION: The $150 increase in room and board rates represents an overall 5% increase from 1999-2000. The need to renovate and upgrade the NCTA residence halls to meet acceptable living standards is a major factor affecting the rate increase. Bathroom facilities and dorm room furniture in both residence halls are in serious need of renovation and replacement. Of the $150 proposed room and board rate increase, $100 is attributable to an increase in room rates to meet inflationary labor and maintenance costs and provides for renovation and replacement. The remaining $50 is attributable to an increase in board rates to meet inflationary food and labor costs.

RECOMMENDED ACTION: Report

PREVIOUS ACTION: None

EXPLANATION: Deloitte & Touche LLP, the audit firm engaged by the State Auditor of Public Accounts and the University, has delivered their independent auditors' report relating to the Financial Statements of the University of Nebraska for the year ended June 30, 1999. As required, Deloitte & Touche LLP, has provided the subject documents to the Auditor of Public Accounts.

This is the 27th consecutive year, since the inception of the external audit program, that the auditors have expressed an unqualified opinion on the University's Financial Statements.

The Business & Finance Departments of each campus are to be commended for their efforts in working with the auditors to complete the report and for continuing to provide excellent financial leadership during the past year.

MEETING DATE: February 26, 2000

SUBJECT: Single Audit of Federal Funds for the year ended June 30, 1999

RECOMMENDED ACTION: Report

PREVIOUS ACTION: None

EXPLANATION: By law, the University of Nebraska is required to undergo an annual "single audit" dealing with compliance matters spelled out by Federal regulations and/or stipulations of the particular contract/grant or by the granting agency. This audit is in addition to the required financial audit.

The University's auditor, Deloitte & Touche LLP, has performed the single audit for the year ending June 30, 1999. The audit was performed following generally accepted auditing standards, Government Auditing Standards, issued by the Comptroller General of the United States, the Single Audit Act and Amendments of 1996 and the provisions of Office of Management and Budget Circular A-133, Audits of States, Local Governments, and Non-Profit Organizations.

There were no material weaknesses or deficiency findings with respect to internal control and compliance with Federal Program Requirements.

Copies of this audit are available from the Office of the Vice President for Business & Finance.

Snyder Building Renovation—Modification of Roof Design

RECOMMENDED ACTION: Report

PREVIOUS ACTION: February 20, 1999 - The Board of Regents Approved the Schematic Design for the Snyder Building Renovation.
May 16, 1998 - The Board of Regents Approved Davis Design as the architect to design the Snyder Building renovation.
February 22, 1997 - The Board of Regents approved the Program Statement for the Snyder Building renovation.

EXPLANATION: This is an LB1100 funded deferred maintenance project which includes the replacement of the roof, HVAC and Lighting systems. The roof component of the project needs to be modified from a new pitched roof over the existing flat roof, to a partial pitched roof and replacement of sections of flat roof as needed. The reason for this modification is based primarily on the budgetary constraints of the project. This modification is part of the redesign and re-bidding of the project after it bid over budget on August 4, 1999.

Foundation Fighting Blindness	Iqbal Ahmad, PhD Ophthalmology	Degeneration of photoreceptors is the most common cause of blindness. Photoreceptors are cells in the retina without which the signal for vision cannot be generated. These cells are degenerated in both retinitis pigmentosa and macular degeneration, two of the most prevalent of sight robbing diseases. The objective of this research is to assess the outcome of putative retinal stem cell transplantation to repopulate diseased retina and rescue photoreceptors from further degeneration.	64,246
US Department of Energy	Surinda Batra, PhD. Biochemistry	This study will characterize monovalent and multivalent forms of MabCC49 single chain Fv constructs before and after radio labeling for purity and immunoreactivity; will evaluate the pharmacology and bio-distribution of radio labeled monovalent and multivalent forms of MabCC49 single chain Fv constructs in both normal and tumor bearing animals; and will determine the relative therapeutic efficacy and normal tissue toxicity of radio labeled multivalent SCFv constructs as compared to intact IgG and/or IgG fragments.	310,000
DHHS/NIH/NCI	Ercole Cavalieri, PhD Eppley Institute	The goal of this project is to show that the pathway of oxidation of catechols [amines and estrogens] to form depurinating DNA adducts is the common denominators for triggering cancer and other diseases.	276,872

DHHS/NIH/NCI	Wing Chan, Ph.D Pathology/Microbiology	This is a multi-institutional effort to unravel the unique abnormalities in tumor cells that govern the clinical behavior and responsiveness of lymphoma to treatment. Modern techniques that can demonstrate the gene expression pattern and genetic abnormalities of tumor samples will be utilized.	379,106
DHHS/NIH/NINDS	Howard Gendelman, MD Pathology/Microbiology	This project seeks to establish models of the blood-brain barrier in laboratory and animal model systems to uncover the events leading to virus and inflammatory cell infiltration into brain tissue.	237,042
American Heart Association	Maurice Godfrey, PhD Munroe-Meyer Institute	This study will investigate specific fibrillin molecule mutations associated with Marfan Syndrome. The researchers will examine the possibility of reducing the amount of abnormal protein secreted by cells using gene therapy techniques. The researchers want to determine the physical structure of normal regions of the fibrillin molecules and examine what changes occur during mutation .	61,750
DHHS/NIH/NCI	Michael Hollingsworth, PhD Eppley Institute	This project will identify genetic elements and associated transcription factors that may be important in the expression of the MUC1 gene. Research indicates the MUC1 protein contributes to tumor progression and metastasis.
